'Can't Do Job Justice'—Blackman

"It's a question of doing several jobs adequately, or one task well."

These words sum up reasoning behind the decision of John Blackman to resign his post as village trustee.

Blackman submitted his resignation to Village President Murrill Cunningham at the meeting of the board June 8.

At that time, Blackman cited the press of business for his decision to resign his office. He is a concrete contractor.

In a statement to The Antioch News today Blackman said, "In all justice to the Village and to those who elected me to office, I do not feel that I can continue to devote the time that an officeholder must if he is to fulfill the office to which he was elected."

Blackman said that it had been a signal honor and an education to sit on the Village Board. He had high praise for fellow officials.

When queried by The News, Blackman categorically rejected any thoughts that his resignation had resulted from reasons other than a conflict of time between official duties and business interests.

Blackman was returned to office April 18 for his third term. He is a member of the Street and Lighting, Public Building and Salaries committees. He has been in business here for 20 years and in 1960 formed a corporation of his contracting business.

Village officials expressed regret at losing a man of Blackman's "caliber." They described him as capable, aggressive and particularly effective in his supervision of the street committee.

Meanwhile, President Cunningham faces the task of naming an appointee trustee to replace Blackman. Until the situation clears and a trustee is appointed, further village appointment by Cunningham will be withheld.

Action on necessary appointments is indicated by the press of Village business, but Mayor Cunningham to date has not revealed his thought as to a successor for Blackman.

The board now consists of Ernest H. Glenn, re-elected April 18, holds over Edmund F. Vos, Herman Holbek, David Nissen, and H. Roger Williams, elected April 18.

Raymond Toft, who made it a close race as an independent, has been mentioned by colleagues as one who would be an asset to the Village office.

Legion, VFW Hold Flag Day Ceremony

Antioch American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts, assisted by local Boy Scouts and Sea Scouts climaxed Flag Day yesterday with an appropriate disposal ceremony at the Village parking lot.

The event opened with a parade of colors from Antioch Township High School at 7 p.m.

Old flags, assembled at four pick-up points during the past week, were disposed of under prescribed ceremonies.

WIVES NOW out gracefully as official Centennial chefs take over at the pit in a practice dry run preliminary to the huge, old fashioned barbecue scheduled June 25 as part of the three-day observance. Although chefs Leonard Roblin, Bob Wilton, Tom Haviland and Joe Patrovsky try their culinary skills here on a lonely bird, they will charcoal broil and butter baste 3,000 chickens for the outdoor event June 25.

Village Assumes Civil War Air as Merchants Display Relics of 1860's

Antioch began to take on a Civil War "air" in anticipation of the Centennial observance June 23-25, as street decorations went up and merchants began to decorate display windows with mementos and relics of the 1860's.

Signs announcing the Centennial and flower containers displaying American and Confederate flags adorn each street light in the business district, the result of work last week by Edgar S. Simonsen, superintendent of public works, and his crew.

One of the more dramatic window displays consists of what is considered to be the finest collection of Civil War side arms in Lake County, now at Williams Hardware.

The collection, assembled by State Patrolman Jack Wells, consists of 13 muskets, and 14 hand guns, all dating from 1865 and earlier. All were used in the Civil War.

One unusual rifle, of English make, was reportedly among those smuggled in from abroad for use by the confederacy. This piece bears the serial number 25, attesting to its early make.

Included in the dramatic display are the personal memoirs of Gen. U. S. Grant and Gen. W. T. Sherman, the payroll of Co. I, 11th Regiment, for the period of February, 1863, muster rolls of the 6th Regiment for 1862, which later headquartered at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., discharge papers, minie balls and cartridges, ammunition belts and pouches, and early views of Antioch.

Window shoppers can expect more such displays this weekend as Centennial planners and merchants cooperate to turn time back for the three-day Centennial nine days hence.

Car Crash Kills Boy on Birthday

Douglas F. Grosvenor, 141 Johnson Ave., Libertyville, was killed Saturday night when a car in which he was riding rolled down an embankment on Rt. 45 northeast of Antioch, Saturday was the victim's 17th birthday.

Driver of the car, Jesse Sobey, 1312 Johnson Ave., Libertyville, suffered a slight leg injury. He told Kenosha County deputies that he was driving north on Rt. 45 about 1 1/2 miles south of Bristol at about 7:15 p.m. when a rear tire blew.

He heard a bang and the car swayed. He said he lost control of the car and then lost consciousness. Grosvenor was thrown from the car and pinned beneath. He was killed instantly. The victim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grosvenor, Sr., Libertyville.

His death marked the 33rd Lake County to die in auto mishaps this year. This compares with 15 at this date last year.

Police Question Two in Stabbing

Bennie Walker, 41, who lives in a trailer near Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd., was stabbed in a melee in the trailer Friday night. The victim underwent surgery Saturday at St. Theresa hospital.

Held for questioning were Dorothy Mae Booth, 21, and Felix McGee, 30, both of Waukegan. All three are Negroes.

Gary John Parisi, R 13, Lake Villa, was among 755 students who received degrees at 62nd commencement exercises June 10 at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

Village Barbecue to Cap Centennial Here

COSTUMES AVAILABLE

Costumes ordered by those participating in the Civil War Centennial June 23-25, may be picked up at the Scout House from 8-8 p.m. June 21-22, it was announced today.

Costumes are to be returned June 26 and 27. A penalty of $1 per day will be charged for those retaining costumes past those dates.

Crash Victim Still Critical

Gardner M. Mallory, 31, 628 North Ave., critically injured early Sunday morning when his car crashed into a culvert off Rt. 173 in Newport Township, remained unconscious today in Zion Hospital.

Mallory suffered a fractured jaw and internal injuries in the crash, and was being nourished intravenously through his leg.

Miss Lynn Veesenmeyer, 19, RFD, Lake Marie, a passenger in Mallory's car, was injured less seriously in the crash and was taken off the critical list Tuesday. She was undergoing extensive X-rays to determine the extent of her injuries. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Veesenmeyer.

The crash occurred at about 1:45 a.m. Sunday when Mallory's car hit a culvert after running off Rt. 173 a mile east of Skokie Highway in Newport township.

Deputies Raymond Simmers and John Baile said the car crossed the road and hit the culvert on the opposite side of the road. They said the absence of skid marks indicated Mallory may have fallen asleep at the wheel of his car.

Mallory is proprietor of the Antioch IGA store and operates another IGA in Elgin, Ill.

Mrs. Anderson Retires; Veteran L.V. Teacher

LAKE VILLA—Mrs. Edith K. Anderson, who has started out many local youngsters in formal schooling during her 10 years as teacher in the Community Consolidated School, is retiring.

Mrs. Anderson, a resident of Waukegan, began her teaching career in East Aurora (Ill.) schools some 20 years ago.

She plans to travel and "take it easy" with her husband, also retired.

CWO William J. James
5th Army Band Director

Civil War Centennial planners were working down to the wire this week to nail down the thousands of details calculated to make the three day observance here, June 23-25, the biggest in Village history.

Not the least of the tasks ahead was that facing the four official Centennial chefs who were today planning the piece de resistance of the Civil War observance—a huge, old fashioned public barbecue lasting from 11:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Sunday, July 23, at the swimming pool grounds.

Under barbecue chairman Tom Haviland, chefs Leonard Roblin, Bob Wilton and Joe Patrovsky will supervise the preparation of 3,000 chickens over a 100-foot long pit. More than a ton of charcoal will be used to bring the charcoal-broiled, unable to make the scene. Details of the gigantic cookout are available by calling Antioch 359.

A full day of activities has been scheduled for Sunday, June 25, to ring down the curtain on Antioch's commemoration.

Sunday morning will be set aside for church worship. The afternoon will start with a square dance exhibition by the Allemand Club of Antioch, from 1 to 1:30 p.m.

The Bristol Falcons, teenage square dance group and district runner-up in Milwaukee competition, will take over at 1:45 p.m. An adult band from Bristol, Wis., will entertain from 2:15 to 2:45 p.m.

A diving exhibition will begin at 2:45 p.m. and will be followed by a demonstration drill by the United States Marine Corps Drill Squad from the Marine Corps Barracks at Great Lakes.

Square dancing by the Woodshed Whirlers, local group, will follow at 3:30, with the Antioch Grade School Band ringing down formal activities at 4:15 p.m.

Free swimming will be available to all comers Sunday afternoon, and during the busy schedule, "Brothers of the Brush" will be judged for beard growing by a selected board of judges from the Moose.

The Sunday program will be the finale of a three-day observance which will open at 7 p.m. Friday, June 23, with a parade headed by the famed Fifth Army Band and various floats from throughout the area. The parade will form at the Little League park and proceed to the high school for opening ceremonies.

A pageant, "From Antioch to Appomattox," will be presented by Paleta, Masque and Lyre in the school auditorium to open the Centennial.

Saturday's schedule will include judging of the Civil War essay contest, opening of the art show and flower exhibit, judging of costumes, a showing of the movie "Uncle Tom's Cabin," a repeat performance of the pageant, "From Antioch to Appomattox," and a street dance sponsored by the Fire Department.

All events in the three-day observance are open to the public.

Watch for the hour-by-hour schedule and photos and details of Antioch's Centennial in next week's issue of The Antioch News.

Local Resident Receives Highest Degree of Moose

In colorful ceremonies held Saturday, June 10, George Jarosik, R. 4, Box 210, North Shore Gardens, was awarded the Pilgrim Degree of Merit, the highest degree of the Loyal Order of Moose at Mooseheart, famed Moose City of Children near Aurora, Ill.

Jarosik, a member of the local Moose lodge for many years, was awarded this coveted degree for his continued outstanding service to the philanthropic work of his fraternity.

Investiture of the Pilgrim Class sponsored by Director General Paul P. Schmitz, was held in the House of God, place of worship for the children at Mooseheart, under the supervision of the Pilgrim Governor, Rodney H. Brandon.

The local recipient of the Pilgrim Degree was one of more than 100 Moose members from over 1,900 lodges throughout the United States and Canada to receive this honor. The distinction of the award is indicated by the fact that only one out of about every 10,000 Moose members can receive the degree each year.

There's a Blight on the Landscape

EYESORE

Visitors approaching Antioch from the south via Rt. 21 are treated to a pleasant vista of rolling farmland, cool lakes and sleek cattle peacefully grazing.

Discounting a few shakes and rattles occasioned by a well-worn highway, the motorist can't help but enjoy the scene, particularly be he an urban dweller anxious for a day or two in the country.

This sylvan scene continues on through the outskirts of Antioch where spacious, comfortable homes line tree-shaded streets.

But any peace occasioned by the small village, rustic atmosphere is rudely jarred when the wandering motorist brokes to a stop at the intersection of Rts. 21 and 173.

Glaring at him from the northwest corner is the wildest, most unattractive panorama of signs to be seen short of Madison Ave. in Chicago. Realtors vie with grocers, motels with restaurants, all competing for attention — a potpourri of words and jarring color that must confuse and irritate rather than sooth and inform.

What a rude welcome to Antioch.

Couldn't this blight be transformed into an asset through a bit of thought and ingenuity?

We think it can. Here's one idea.

Have the Chamber, the Lions or some other civic group erect an attractive sign welcoming the motorist to Antioch. Around the edge of this sign could be a listing of businesses so desiring. The fee for this listing would more than compensate for the expense of the sign and any maintenance.

The present eyesore could soon be transformed into a spot of attractive invitation.

It might take some coordinating with the owner of the land and perhaps the highway department. That should be simple.

First impressions are important and lasting.

From the southern approach Antioch leaves something to be desired.

Sighs for the Old 4th

We are becoming a nation of softy-do-gooders legislating everything from the wrapping of jelly beans to the ingredients in strudel. Pretty soon the powers that be will be setting our bathroom hours.

This overwhelming desire to govern and conform becomes nowhere more apparent to this writer than during the season of July 4.

The new batch of youngsters are doomed to grow up without ever commend those adventuresome efforts, those semi-risky antics, remembering, of course, that they must be leavened with proper background, training and judgment.

The only way to keep 'em entirely safe today is to keep 'em home. But keep them away from the bathtub. That's where most of the accidents in the home occur.

Tip to young entrepreneurs—Progress is upon us and a youngster with muscles can, with the aid of a power mower, knock over five-six lawns a day.

But the day when a youngster provided a real lawn-tending service is long gone.

The lad with the roaring mower cuts the grass and then cuts out—leading dear old dad with the bothersome chore of raking, clipping around shrubs, borders and walks—not counting the strips the youth missed in his haste.

A lad with the zeal and ambition could set the silver jangle through a waiting list of satisfied customers gained by reviving old-fashioned work and thoroughness.

Your State Senator Reports

By State Sen. Robert McClary

What is happening to state employment? It has been your State Senator's hope that an increasing percentage of state employees would be hired on the basis of merit. This hope is far from being realized. Indeed, at the moment, it appears there are strong forces at work seeking to restore the old spoils system.

The new director of personnel, Maude Myers, a career person herself in the fields of Civil Service and merit employment, has an uphill fight. She has been embarrassed by questionnaires issued to most state employees demanding that they indicate their political party affiliation and identify a political sponsor. She was prompt in rejecting this blundering attempt to seek converts to the Democratic Party under the veiled threat of a loss of employment.

It is not suggested that political activity should be a bar to state employment. Nor should activity in the Democratic Party by itself qualify one for a state job.

State employment practices were brought to a high level during the recent Republican administration following enactment of the Personnel Code by the General Assembly in 1955. This measure prepared by leading personnel men from private industry and passed with bipartisan sponsorship was administered for about two years by Donald Mc-

Amis, formerly personnel manager of Electro-Motive Corp. The law was weakened by certain legislative action in the 1957 and 1959 sessions. It is being weakened further by administrative action under the new administration.

One method employed for getting rid of Republican or non-partisan employees is to abolish job classifications. This accomplished, the discharged employees are replaced by new employees hired under a different job classification.

Republican leaders were not surprised to learn recently that the number of state employees had reached an all-time high. However, this has made it more difficult to explain to the numerous discharged Republicans (classified under the Personnel Code) whose jobs have been abolished.

Large portions of the increased appropriations represent additional jobs which the Democrats expect to dole out to the faithful party workers. In connection with a certain large appropriation bill it was noted recently that a reduction of more than $100,000 had been made in the appropriations for certain scientific work carried on by the State. In the same bill there was a corresponding increase for "Personal Services" (in other words, jobs).

This change was at variance with the decision of the Budgetary Commission which has studied the various appropriation requests. When the unauthorized change was called

SPRINGFIELD

By Rep. PAUL SIMON

How can the average citizen keep informed on what is happening in the state legislature during the final weeks, when action comes so quickly?

That question is not easy to answer, because these last weeks of the General Assembly are filled with activity. We must adjourn by July 1. During these next weeks action will be taken on more than 2000 bills.

Here are some practical ways you can find out what is happening:

1—Follow your daily newspapers. The headlines on what is happening in Springfield may not be as big as some others; the story may not be as interesting as a story about some murder or rape. But more citizens must discipline their newspaper reading habits to follow more closely what government is doing.

2—Ask for an information bulletin from organizations to which you belong. Many groups have periodic reports about action in Springfield, usually with a particular slant. These include the Council of Churches, the P.T.A., unions, business groups, farm groups, and others. Limitations on this kind of information are that their interests tend to be very specialized, and sometimes they give a one sided approach to legislation.

3—You can write to the Legislative Reference Bureau, Capitol Building, Springfield, Ill., and receive a bulletin put out by the state for $5 giving in summary form what is happening in all legislation. If there are bills you want to see in full, the offices of the Senate and House will be happy to supply them to you.

4—Write to your legislator asking for information on bills in which you have a particular interest. Here you should remember that the mail the legislator receives is heavy these days. I am several weeks behind in answering my mail and I am sure many other legislators find themselves in a similar situation.

Why are the final days in Springfield so chaotic?

There is no simple answer. Part of it is the human tendency to postpone. The student "crams" the night before his exams, and the last days of the legislative session are the "finals" for legislators. Like students, too often we postpone our studying to the last minute.

Part of it is that committees have to work on legislation, and frequently when it appears to the public that nothing is happening, a committee or sub-committee may be working on a measure.

The other part of it is that there are some who purposely want things to be confused and hectic so that they can kill or pass legislation that might receive the opposite treatment were there more time for consideration.

Whatever the cause for these busy final days of the legislature, these are the days when the public should pay particular interest to what is happening.

These days you can be helped—or sold down the river—in a matter of minutes.

Courthouse Notebook—

BY LOU DURKIN

A gallant if belated bid to save an hour of daylight for the people of Illinois and particularly for Lake County was made by the Lake County Board of Supervisors Monday when they approved a resolution calling for adherence to a late October ending of the artificial time.

The resolution was addressed to State Sen. Robert McClary urging him to intercede in the state senate in favor of continuing daylight savings time through October, and to Gov. Otto Kerner urging him to veto the legislation which would put the clocks back on time on the last Saturday in September.

The resolution was adopted at the request of Mel Amstutz, county superintendent of highways, who is anxious to get as much road work done as possible while the weather is right for outside work.

We were surprised that the Chain O'Lakes Resort Owners Association didn't have someone to speak in their behalf urging the extra month of daylight which could give them a few more hours of daylight boating.

Cuba Township's Joseph Welch indicated he saw little hope for the saving of an extra hour of daylight, but urged passage of the resolution anyhow.

One would think that the legislature would at least try to save a little daylight for the people, even if it isn't going to save any money.

But then, perhaps we should be grateful they haven't figured out a way to tax the extra hour of daylight we get under the present law.

John Morris, sanitary engineer for the county health department, made a farewell appearance before the county board Monday to urge passage of an ordinance dealing with the control of sanitary landfill garbage disposal sites and trash dumps in the county.

The board approved the ordinance and the ground rules established by the Health Department to govern the operation of the sites.

The new ordinance will supplement a very general and vague ordinance administered by the building department in the past.

Incidentally, the Health Department is watching with more than passing interest the fate of a court action brought by Atty. Eugene T. Daly for a Loon Lake developer.

The developer would like to build a sewage treatment plant and dump the treated sewage into the landlocked lake.

The Health Department feels that a victory for the developer in this case would practically sign the death warrant of the Department's campaign to eliminate pollution of our lakes.

Partisan politics reared its ugly head during the board meeting when Waukegan Assistant Supervisor John Balen, who was elected this year on the Democratic ticket, objected to the board authorizing a deputy coroner for Coroner Robert H. Babcox.

Balen, who is beginning to warm to his task, warned that the addition of a deputy coroner to relieve Babcox of some of the pressure of the office, would be a political move and would lead to the building of a political dynasty.

That is an awful lot of political patronage to give one county official—two payrolls.

While it is unlikely the rest of the supervisors saw any political demons nesting under the bed, Babcox will have to struggle along as he has the past eight years without a deputy.

And it doesn't take much of a political memory to be surprised at Supervisor Emmett Moroney backing the Coroner's bid for some additional help in the office.

to the attention of an administration aide, he responded significantly: "When it comes to a choice between scientific work, and jobs, I'll take jobs."

This attitude appears to be reflected in many parts of the administration budget as well as in the pending appropriation measures.

It will not be the aim of the Republican loyal opposition to reduce salaries or even to oppose increases for deserving career employees of the state, but adding jobs and loading payrolls for political purposes will be contested by the Republicans wherever possible. Many explanations and excuses will be presented by the Democrats for adding literally millions of dollars to the various departmental appropriation bills for "personal services" and "contractual services." Only one explanation is needed for denying these increases, namely, "We can't afford it."

That makes sense in businesses and in households. It should be equally as sound in state government.

600 - Acre Tract Plush Site
For Housing Development

LINDENHURST — A 600-acre game, fish, and plant life preserve here is gradually being converted into what promoters say will be one of Lake County's finest home sites.

The land adjoins Lindenhurst on the north and extends a half mile west and a quarter mile east on Beck Road and north to Loon Lake Road and beyond.

The property was recently purchased from Glenn W. Traer, millionaire-transportation magnate by N. H. Engle & Sons Co.

Morton Engle, firm member, said that this is a project extending over several years.

Three lakes will provide shoreline lots for many of the more than 600 residential locations. The first lake, immediately north of Lindenhurst's present residential area, will have a mile and a half of shore line.

A second lake will have 4½ miles of shoreline north and to the east of the first one. It will extend north over the area where the Millburn Pent Co. mined its peat to the Loon Lake Road, and east across what is now Beck Road.

The lake will be from 7-25 feet deep.

A third lake, the smaller of the three will be constructed east of Beck Road south of Loon Lake Road, and will include a large pond used for bass fishing. Other small ponds in the preserve used for minnow raising ponds and ponds for ducks will be removed or included in the lakes.

The land is ideal for development.

One area has 10,000 evergreen, where wild life ranging from rabbits to deer find refuge. In other areas Australian pine, white pine, Scotch pine, and jack pine are plentiful.

Engle said he will consult a golf course expert on the possibility of building a course east of Beck Road in the area of the third lake.

The first lake will be completed by autumn or next spring and lots will go on sale then. In the meantime the firm is finishing its sale of lots and building residences in the 22nd unit of its Lindenhurst subdivision east of Beck Road.

BUCKET SEATS ALONE DO NOT A MONZA MAKE

■ Gee! ■ Little did we know, when we introduced the Corvair Monza last year, that we were starting a Big Thing. We just thought it would be pleasant if you could buy a car that treats you, the driver, like you want to be treated. ■ The bucket seats, of course, are the most obvious evidence of our desire to please you. But they're not the most important thing. No sir. What's really vital is the way a Monza handles—something nobody in the U.S. has yet copied. Or can copy. Because Corvair is the only rear-engined car made in this country, and you know what that means: steering light as a feather. (You even park this one more easily, it steers so briskly.) Beautifully balanced braking—the car stays level even under panic braking, which we hope you'll never have to do. Traction and more traction, so you don't become a stick-in-the-mud. The kind of cornering that's sheer joy to experience. ■ You get more: a fully independent suspension that blots out road shocks before they can ruffle you. Clean, crisp styling. Thoroughgoing economy, from purchase price to operating cost. ■ You're not going to be satisfied with bucket seats alone, are you?

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council
HOSPITALIZING THE CHILD
By James Marvin Baty, M. D.
Physician-in-Chief

The Boston Floating Hospital
What should parents do when a child must be taken to the hospital? Should they remain with the child? What about visiting?

There are no ready answers to these questions. At the Boston Floating Hospital we have developed a number of ideas based on the things we are learning about the impact of illness and hospitalization on children and their families.

A child's first encounter with a hospital is during admission. Even though the doctor and nurse are gentle and kind, they are strangers and most children do better if the mother does the undressing, permits the nurse to help her and holds onto the child's hand while the physician does the examination.

However, some children, when frightened (apparently feeling the protection of the mother's presence), give vent to their fears and revolt to such an extent that a satisfactory examination is impossible until the mother leaves the room.

We believe that whenever feasible, the mother and her father, if he is along, should go with the child when he is taken to his room or to the ward. This initial visit, allowing the mother to get acquainted with the nurses and to see the child's crib or bed, is very reassuring, both to her and to the child. When the child sees the mother talk to the nurse in a friendly manner, he realizes that he also can trust the nurses, and when the mother leaves with the reassurance that she will be back tomorrow, the nurse's task in quieting the child will be less difficult.

It is natural for younger children to cry as if wounded and angry when their mother leaves them in a strange situation. But if the mother comes to the hospital each day, most children will be reassured and realize that although mother is going away she will come back. They then turn to the people around them for love and protection in her absence.

It also helps a child in this age group to have a familiar and beloved object in his crib—the favorite toy or doll or blanket seems to be a tie to home, a consolation in loneliness and a token of the child's identity.

Library Offers Memorial Works, Popular Classics

Although Richard Henry Dana wrote "Two Years Before the Mast" many years ago, it is timeless in the interest it holds for readers of all ages. Dodd, Mead has included this wonderful adventure story in the series of Great Illustrated Classics and the handsome new edition is now available at the Antioch Township Library in Memory of William Setek.

The folk song is fast becoming a major musical interest because of the work of such exponents as Alan Lomax, Burl Ives and Carl Sandburg. "The Folk Songs of North America," by Alan Lomax, is the most complete collection ever to be published. More than 300 songs, with accompaniments, are collected from all sections of the country in this fine volume which was given in memory of Arthur Albrecht.

"Bird Portraits in Color" is an excellent reference work for the amateur bird watcher as well as for the professional ornithologist. It was revised from the book written many years ago by Thomas D. Roberts about midwestern birds and the magnificent color reproductions are identical to those in the earlier book. "Bird Portraits in Color" was given in memory of Mrs. Bertha Larson.

Two fine volumes of poetry have been given to the library in memory of Richard B. Seyfarth. "The Family Book of Verse," edited by Lewis Gannett, and "Time for Poetry," edited by May Hill Arbuthnot, are designed for family enjoyment. Most poetry is more enjoyable when read aloud and is particularly true of these very comprehensive collections. Two contributions to the Library Building Fund were also received in memory of Mr. Seyfarth.

SCHOOL HALL OPEN

Crooked Lake Oaks

By Bernadine Long
CROOKED LAKE OAKS—The Crooked Lake Oaks Improvement Association held its first general meeting of the year on Sunday, May 28, at the beach house. The president, Neal Long, voiced his disappointment at the poor attendance at the meeting but said he was encouraged by the enthusiasm and determination of the people that were present to do everything possible for the betterment and improvement of the subdivision.

Because of the financial situation of the Association, no more work can be done on the roads. For that matter, no improvements whatsoever can be made until the dues for 1961 are paid, he said. The deadline for dues was set for July 1.

A committee of three men, Frank Splichal, Bill Belter and Tony Bataglia, was organized to contact the people who have not paid their dues for 1960.

Another committee in charge of Ann Splichal, with John Fath and George Bartels assisting was organized to look into all possibilities of raising money for the Association fund. Any ideas and suggestions would be gladly welcomed—by committee members or any of the Association officers.

Bill Belter, Neal Long, Frank Splichal and Howard Stann were organized as a committee to check into the possibility of turning the main roads of the subdivision into township roads. A report of their findings will be presented at the next meeting.

The men decided to do all the repair work and painting that needs to be done at the beach. The Ladies' Auxiliary is furnishing the paint and all materials. More volunteers are needed. If you feel you can spend a little time once a year to help improve "your" community, contact the men in charge, Joe Fiandaca or Bill Belter, EL 6-5240.

The beach buttons and car stickers are already in and will be distributed to all home owners of Crooked Lake Oaks who have already paid their dues.

Frank Splichal, who took samples of water from Crooked Lake to be tested under the direction of the Lake County Federation of Improvement Association, reported at the meeting that results of tests proved satisfactory. There was no sign of water pollution.

The Ladies' Auxiliary is going ahead with arrangements for their Family Potluck Dinner on Saturday, June 24, at the Oakland Grade School on Deep Lake and Loon Lake Roads. Serving will be from 5:30-7:30 p.m. There is a nominal charge, and children under three will be admitted free. Meat, butter and rolls are furnished. Each family is asked to bring one dish to pass. Tickets can be obtained from Auxiliary members or by contacting the secretary, Bernadine Long. Tickets will also be sold at the door. Collette Riegler is in charge of food.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be at the home of Bernadine Long, Linden Ave., Saturday, June 17, at 2 p.m. The meeting will be held outdoors, weather permitting. The time of the meeting was changed to Saturday for the convenience of the people who have summer cottages and come out on weekends.

Congratulations to our graduates: Wendy Garvin, Bobby Wachta and Marsha Kroepin who graduated from kindergarten class at Oakland Grade School; Freddie Fath, Linda Kroepin and Linda Mitchell, who graduated from 8th grade at the Oakland Grade School on Thursday, June 1; Jimmy Keane who graduated from Prince of Peace Grade School on Sunday, June 4; Penny Camphausen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Camphausen, Edgewood, who graduated from Antioch Township High School Monday, June 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mann, Linden Ave., had dinner at the Hapsberg Restaurant near Wheeling, Ill., recently with other members of their family, Mrs. Agnes Mogilicki, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mann and Mr. Lester Mann.

Four major proposals, designed to encourage orderly growth of the Chain of Lakes area of Lake and McHenry counties have been made by Northwestern University seniors in civil engineering.

The students presented the results of their senior class project, a three-month study of the Chain of Lakes area, before 130 officials and citizens at Northwestern's Technological Institute in Evanston.

The four proposals: Transportation—Rte. 12 should be relocated out of Fox Lake to skirt the area to the south and west.

Recreation—The area's state park should be expanded from its present 3,800 acres to 19,000 acres.

Permanent Community—Fox Lake should move to encourage light industry to move in to provide off-season employment, and to increase the tax base.

Flood Plain—The 1960 flood, worst in 20 years, caused damage because Chain of Lakes water courses are too narrow; a flood plain should be set aside.

Adoption of the measure would result in a more prosperous region, too, since the area is the major nearby water-recreation area for all northeastern Illinois; the proposals would ensure the orderly development of Chain of Lakes' recreation potential.

The students studied the area first-hand; did research into problems of similar regions; and consulted officials of area, county, and state bodies, and the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers.

Here are more facts on the four major proposals:

Transportation: Rte. 12 should be relocated to skirt the south and west edges of Pistakee Lake.

Recreation: Nearby state park and private resorts and marinas must expand to handle the volume of summer vacationers to the area, the students report. There already are 17,000 boats on the Chain of Lakes, with more coming yearly. To handle the influx and take advantage of the finest water recreation area in northeastern Illinois, the park should be greatly expanded.

Today, the park consists of 2,700 acres of water and 1,100 acres of land; the students propose this be increased to about 16,300 acres of land and 2,700 acres of lake area.

Studies show that 30-40 acres of park per 1,000 population is the minimum desirable park area for a region. Northeastern Illinois now has about 14 acres per 1,000 people. Students emphasized that the expanded park is needed simply to supplement the private resorts and marinas, and would not hurt their business.

Flood Plain: The 1960 floods, worst in 20 years, called attention to the need for a flood-overflow area, to supplement the narrow watercourses which now carry off rain water reaching the lakes. Now is the time to act, the students say, because relatively few buildings are located in low areas.

Their recommendation: A flood plain should be set aside, perhaps in conjunction with the park; into which water could run during high water periods. No buildings would be allowed in the area.

Permanent Community: In order to build up the economic base of the area, and provide off-season employment for year-round residents, the students proposed a program to encourage light industry to enter the area. At present, the only major industry is recreation. More industry not only would provide more jobs, but a larger tax base.

County Engineer Joins U.S. Health Service

John G. Morris, chief sanitary engineer of Lake County Health Department, is resigning to accept a new position with the Division of Water Supply and Pollution Control, United States Public Health Service, it was announced today by Arthur G. Baker, M. D., director of the health department.

Morris has been associated with the department almost from the beginning of its operation. He started work with the health department Dec. 1, as chief sanitary engineer. In this position he has provided public health engineering consultation in the drafting of the Lake County Health Code and he has also guided the development of the health department's division of environmental health which now is made up of 10 sanitarians.

Dr. Baker praised Morris and pointed out that he has been particularly instrumental in establishing sanitation programs geared to rapidly developing metropolitan problems of Lake County.

In his new position with the United States Public Health Service, Morris will be chief of technical operations for the Great Lakes-Illinois River Basin Project with offices in Chicago. This project is geared to surveying sources of sewage and industrial waste pollution in the Great Lakes Basin. This survey will also provide the technical data in analyzing the probable effects of water diversion from the Great Lakes.

96th Div. Reunion

The 96th Infantry Division Association invites all veterans of the unit in the area to attend the fourth annual reunion of the Division at Detroit, Mich., July 27-29.

The session will include business meetings, a moonlight excursion on the Detroit River, "gab" sessions, a banquet and a dance.

Full details of the reunion, and of the Association itself, may be obtained by writing Richard Klassen, corresponding secretary, Route 5, Kankakee, Ill.

Traffic Experts To Brief Editors

Nine motor vehicle traffic experts will appear at the 4th annual Illinois Editor and Publisher Highway Traffic Safety Seminar, Friday, June 16, in Springfield, according to Seminar president Robert F. Greenaway, editor of the DeKalb Chronicle.

The program was completed this week and is being distributed by the Seminar secretary James E. Bulger, vice president of the Chicago Motor Club.

Governor Otto Kerner will open the program Friday morning and Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter will complete the speaking portion at the luncheon session, Greenaway announced.

A Seminar innovation, according to Greenaway, will be three group meetings in the afternoon for the daily, weekly, and industrial publications. At these informal sessions, traffic authorities will discuss specific community traffic safety problems with the editors and publishers.

In addition to Gov. Kerner and Secretary of State Carpenter, the following traffic safety authorities will appear on the program: Dr. Amos E. Neyhart, director of the Institute of Public Safety, Pennsylvania State University; Matthew C. Sielski, director of the Chicago Motor Club's safety and traffic engineering department; Floyd L. Anthony, assistant region director, U. S. Bureau of Public Roads; Robert A. Campbell, coordinator, Illinois Division of Traffic Safety; Prof. John E. Baerwald, University of Illinois; William H. Morris, superintendent, Illinois State Police; Myron Lingle, traffic engineer, Illinois Highway Division; Dr. O. N. Hunter, Illinois Department of Public Instruction; and Harry Porter, Jr., National Safety Council.

Property Tax Bills Set for Early Mailing

Individual real estate tax bills will go out in time for taxpayers to make their first returns by Aug. 1, according to County Treasurer Hugo Schneider.

The first tax book from which individual real estate tax bills are to be compiled, was received last week.

Total tax extension for Lake County this year will be $42,988,282.02, an increase of $2,469,756.10. Total valuation of all property in the county stands at $1,049,686,889, an increase of $18,916,788.

Walter Smith, heading the tax extension department of Garfield Leaf, county clerk, has a force at work compiling records on which bills will be based.

First tax bills will be sent to northernmost townships, progressing south; it was announced.

Waukegan Attorney Heads Bar Association

Charles L. Whyte, Jr., Waukegan attorney, has been elected president of the Lake County Bar Association.

Other Bar officers are: Henry Fisher, Waukegan, vice president; and Eugene Snarski, also of Waukegan, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The group will hold its annual golf outing July 27 at Glen Flora Country Club, Waukegan.

THE McILWEES REPORT:

"We heat this big house electrically for just $23 a month!"

Says Patrick G. McIlwee, builder and owner: "We heat 6 large rooms, 2½ baths and a 2-car garage—over 2,000 sq. feet in all. And we're more comfortable at 70° than most homes are at a setting of 75 degrees."

"You can't help liking electric heat," says Pat McIlwee. "It has everything. And I speak from experience with three other well-designed, flame-type heating systems."

"We used radiant electric baseboard in most of the rooms because we wanted individual thermostat control in each room. The garage and back playroom we heat with portable units. The garage is kept at 40 to 50 degrees all winter."

"In the living room we have a big window area. You can nap on that rug, as I do, and never feel a floor draft. The whole house is just as comfortable. We haven't had a common cold among the five of us all winter."

"Electric Heat is also the cleanest heat we've ever had. What little dust we get from outside is easy to wipe away—not sticky or gummy. The rugs, draperies and paint look as fresh as when we moved in."

Talking about the cost of electric heating, Mr. McIlwee added: "You have to build a snug, well-insulated house for electric heating. That includes well-fitted storm windows and doors plus the right kind of insulation."

"This is one reason why we can heat this big house, light it and run ten major appliances—all electrically—and average about $39 a month for everything. That may be a few dollars more than the average, but we feel we get a lot of extra comfort and convenience for the difference."

Pittman, Emerson in Battle For Lead in Keno Softball

A battle of motor car softball squads was in the works tonight (Wednesday) as Pittman Motors, possessors of a 4-0 record, prepared to take on the Emerson Buick Sportsmen, with a 3-0 record.

At stake is undisputed first place in the Lake Keno softball league at Trevor, currently the scene of some hard slugging contests.

The second week of league play continued with hitting still far ahead of pitching.

The leading Pittmans won two last week—overwhelming the Lindenhurst Merchants 20-4—and blanketing the Car-Lucy Clowns 12-0 behind the two-hit pitching of manager Jim Brody.

Hitting for Pittman were Hiller, Poulos and Christiansen.

Emerson Buicks continued undefeated by ringing up two victories—a 19-8 slugfest over Lindenhurst and 16-11 over Golf View Badgers.

Dick Grau, on the mound for the Sportsmen, rapped out eight hits in two games and was strongly supported in this category by Bob Wagner and Peanuts Frytak.

Sid Parker and Ziggy Bolton got four hits each in the Badgers' loss.

In other games during the week, Joe's Tap took two—defeating Genuldi's Lounge 12-10 in extra innings and coming back strong in a 16-3 win over Car-Lucy.

Big guns for Joe's Tap were Bernie Schneider, Bob Beever and Al Reckers.

Added zing will be given to Keno activities this week when Mike Haviland's Loon Lake Garage college boys enter the fray against Lindenhurst, Golf View and Car-Lucy. The Loon Lake squad is composed of college players, accounting for the late entry.

Here are the standings as of this week:

	Won	Lost
Pittman Motors	4	0
Emerson Buick	3	0
Joe's Tap	3	1
Car-Lucy Clowns	1	3
Golf View Badgers	1	3
Genuldi's Lounge	0	3
Lindenhurst Merchants	0	3

51.01 mph Av. Top Speed at Wilmot Track

WILMOT, Wis.—Local racing buffs witnessed one of the tightest races of the young season at the Kenosha County Speedway here Saturday when Jack Frost, Zion, zoomed home first in the 25-lap feature with a trim average of 51.01 mph.

Frost fought off three challengers to take the event, with but 10 feet separating the first four places. The race was nip and tuck throughout, fought at a heady pace.

Placing second in the event was Don Sorce, West Allis; followed by Milt Curcio, Racine, third; Bob Ratajczyk, Antioch, fourth; and Gord Gorman, Libertyville, fifth.

Fastest time of the evening was driven by Don Sorce in the qualifier for modifieds. Sorce turned in a scorching 52.81 mph average.

Other highs of the evening were 50.04 mph by Ed Stillman, Milwaukee, in taking the third 10-lap heat for modifieds; Darv Nissen, Zion, 49.26 mph in the second 10-lap for modifieds; Roger Otto, Burlington, 49.99 mph in the fourth 10-lap heat for modifieds; Jim Lawrence, Bristol 49.11 mph, first 10-lap heat for modifieds; and Ray Klein, Fredonia, Wis., 49.88 mph, 15-lap semi-feature.

Here's the way they finished Saturday at the Speedway:

Rozinski Wins Speedway Event; Driver Injured

Before the season's largest crowd of some 2,850 persons, Ted Rozinski of West Allis captured the 25 lap main event for the modified stocks. Rozinski, the current 1961 point leader at the track, took the lead from Dale Koehler of Glendale on the 15th lap and went on for the victory averaging 49.04 mph.

The event was stopped on lap 23 due to an accident which seriously injured last week's feature winner, Bill Strom of West Allis. Involved in the accident with Strom was Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee, the Waukegan track champion of 1958 and 1959. Stillman was running fourth on the 22nd lap when engine trouble stalled him near the end of the main straight-away. Strom, who had been running fifth, moved up into the fourth place spot, and a lap later, roaring down the main chute, apparently did not see Stillman's stalled machine and plowed into him. The impact flipped Stillman's car over on its top. Strom was rushed to St. Therese's Hospital where it was determined that he lost several teeth and the possibility of a fractured jaw. Stillman was uninjured.

Jim Ouellette of Hales Corners won the 15 lap semi-feature, beating out Arnie Mikula of West Allis in another tight race.

Lindenhurst's Bob Karry set the fastest qualifying time at 51.55 mph, but hooked bumpers with John Reimer of Caledonia in the feature and was out of most of the action.

Fans were treated to close races in all events. Strom beat out Rozinski for the fourth heat and Stillman beat out Grayslake's Jack Radtke for the third heat win by less than half a car length.

Next Sunday, a special Father's Day 35 lap spring championship feature race for the modifieds will be held.

Time trials start at 7:15, the first of the racing events getting underway at 8:30. The speedway is located between Washington Street and Belvidere Road just west of Waukegan.

New 'Fishing Only' Areas Established

As the result of a survey of fishing areas in the Chain O' Lakes area of northern Illinois, parts of several lakes will be restricted to fishing, William T. Lodge, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, announced today.

The restricted areas will be designated by orange and white buoys marked "Fishing Area" and "No Wake."

The restricted areas are: Pistakee Lake: southern end of Pistakee Bay, the bay west of Coon Island, a section near Palm Beach and the eastern and southern ends of Myers Bay.

Fox Lake: All on Stanton Bay and all of the southeast portion of Mineola Bay.

Petite Lake: south and west bays. Bluff Lake: north end of North Bay.

Lake Marie: southern portion of western bay, northern portion of northwest bay, northern portion of northeast bay and southeastern portion of Carpenter's bay.

Lake Catherine: a portion of the northeast section.

Channel Lake: south end of south bay and a portion of northwest bay. All of Spring Lake will be restricted to fishing, as well as 90 per cent of Red Head Lake.

The Law Enforcement Division of the Conservation Department has been instructed to strictly enforce regulations regarding the restricted fishing areas. Reckless operation of motor boats, which in many cases leads to serious accidents, will not be tolerated either on the Chain O' Lakes or in other waters under the jurisdiction of the department, Lodge said.

Silver Lake 12-2 behind the two-hit pitching of Mike Vanderzee, who struck out 10 Orioles batters and hit safely three times.

The hard-hitting Pirates belted the Braves at New Munster by a runaway 15-1, with Rick Wayne knocking a no-hitter while striking out 13 Braves. Three hits by Gary Hilbert, including a homer, led the Pirate attack.

Playing at Twin Lakes, the Cubs were beaten by the White Sox 16-9 for their seventh straight loss. Home runs by Ron Halbach and Mike Thom paced the White Sox attack.

In earlier games, the Orioles smashed out a 21-4 victory over the Cubs at Fox River County Park.

The Yankees dropped one to the Braves at New Munster, 9-3; and the Pirates beat the White Sox 12-2 behind the three-hit pitching of Gary Hilbert. Hilbert hit safely three times to augment his mound efforts, and struck out 13 Sox batters.

Schad New Prep Basketball Coach At Grant High

John Schad, frosh-soph basketball coach at Grant High, has been named mentor of the varsity squad. He succeeds Ray Collier, who retired at the close of the 1961 season.

Schad has coached the frosh-soph cage squads for the past nine years, and has tutored frosh-soph baseball squads for several years.

Squads coached by the youthful tutor have fared well in the conference. His 1953-54 quintet gained a share of the conference title with a 12-2 record and second-place spots were earned by both the 1956-57 and 1957-58 squads.

Schad lettered in football, basketball and baseball at Western Illinois, Macomb, where he won his BA degree in social science. He won his master's in counseling and guidance at Northern, and came to Grant in 1952.

He served in the U. S. Navy, where he played on service teams.

Road America Car Sprints Attract Top U. S. Drivers

ELKHART LAKE, Wis.—Entries for the June 17-18 International June Sprints here at Road America hit the 148 mark this week—an exceptional early total for this 600-mile sports car racing weekend.

That every one of the four weekend races should be bulging with top competitors was evident from the way the early entries were coming in, ranging from 60 for Saturday's first race of 100 miles for smaller production cars and 81-modifieds all the way up to 42 entries for Sunday's feature production race of 300 miles. A steady parade of entries were also coming in for Saturday's Formula Junior 100-miler and the Sunday 100 miler for high-powered modified machines.

Among the latest to "sign in" have been such top names as Ted Baumgartner in a D-modified Ferrari Testa Rossa, the Chevy-based Echidnas of Ed Grierson, John Staver and Bill Larson, Howard Quick in a C-modified Lister Jaguar, Tossie Alex in his immaculate XK-SS Jaguar, Hap Sharp driving George Reed's Ferrari GT, with confirmation that internationally famed Augie Pabst and Dick Thompson will be flying here from the classic LeMans (France) 24-hour race immediately after this weekend.

What should be the most sparkling Concours d'Elegance held here in six years will be staged, on the afternoon and evening of June 17. It will be held in the picturesque natural amphitheatre "The Karting Kettle" at the edge of town in Elkhart Lake, under floodlights which should dramatize the already glamorized concourse cars.

Under the chairmanship of Hal

Cowan of Chicago, judging will cover classic and special interest classes, vintage sports, sports, and touring machines with judging criteria covering excellence of design and exterior, interior, engine, and chassis and running gear. British, West Germany, Italy, France, and American special awards will be given in various categories in addition to Road America plaques and ribbons.

Spectators at Road America will find several changes both for the improvement of racing and watching. The new cantilever starter's platform extending 37 feet over the roadway at the start and finish line is the first of its kind in the world and will make for an extra safety factor for course workers.

Benefitting spectators will be the new walkway bridge just at the top of the rise on the RA Straight immediately in front of the pit area plus the moving up of the grandstand opposite the Straight to a point much closer than before to the track so that fans will get a premium viewing location opposite the finish line.
